CONSTITUTION OF
AFT ST. LOUIS, LOCAL 420
AFT MO, AFT, AFL-CIO

ARTICLE I – NAME

This organization shall be known as AFT St. Louis, Local 420, AFT MO, AFT, AFL-CIO, and may be referred to as a union, local, or federation. The membership shall be the highest governance authority of the union.

ARTICLE II – OBJECTIVES
The objectives of the organization shall be:

1. To bring teachers and school-related personnel into a labor organization for mutual assistance and cooperation.

2. To obtain for them the rights and opportunities to which they are entitled.

3. To raise the standards of teachers and school-related personnel by securing conditions essential to the highest professional services.

4. To encourage and promote active participation of teachers and school-related personnel in the formation of educational policies.

5. To promote education as a democratic social agency that will develop the capacities of youth and enable each to take a place in the individual, political and social life of the community, not so much with the idea of personal profit as of service to others.

6. To promote the welfare of the children of the nation by providing progressively better opportunities for all.

7. To encourage teachers and school-related personnel to be truly professional by setting their own ethical and educational standards.

8. To support the principles of organized labor.

ARTICLE III – MEMBERSHIP

a) Regular Membership: Any employee included in any bargaining unit represented by the Local or in a unit which is being organized by the Local shall be eligible for regular membership. Regular members shall be entitled to all rights and privileges in this organization.

b) Retired and Associate memberships: Employees who retire or who leave the bargaining unit for any reason, except supervisory status, or those who are eligible for representation but not yet included in a bargaining unit represented by the Local, shall be eligible to continue membership in an appropriate membership category. Additional membership categories are retired member or associate member.

Retired members are those who are retired from employment in a unit represented by the Local. Associate members are those who want to continue their membership but have left employment in a unit represented by the Local for reasons other than retirement, and those who are eligible for representation.

Retired and associate members have the same rights and privileges as regular members, except that they may not vote in elections on collective bargaining agreements or on questions of dues. They may not run for office.

c) Application: Membership shall be by application. Applicants for membership shall be recommended and voted on at the general membership meeting or at a meeting of the Executive Board or Stewards Council.

d) Resignation: Resignation of membership shall be by certified letter sent between June 1 and June 30 to the Local stating the effective date of such resignation. The written resignation must be postmarked consistent with the above dates. The effective date cannot be retroactive and in case of doubt, the postmark of the letter shall determine the effective date of receipt. An oral resignation shall have no status.

Section 2.

Supervisory Personnel shall not obtain membership. Members promoted to positions with the rank of supervisor automatically are removed from membership on the effective date of promotion.

Section 3.

Discrimination: No discrimination shall ever be shown toward individual members or applicants for membership because of race, creed, political activities or belief, sex, age, sexual orientation, lifestyle, economic status, or national origin.
Section 4.

Failure to Pay Dues: Any member who fails to pay dues upon dues expiration or within twenty (20) days of the due date shall be declared inactive and placed in an inactive status in Membership Suites of the American Federation of Teachers National Office. The member may be reinstated upon payment of a fee equal to one-half the monthly dues requirement in addition to all back dues but not exceeding three months back dues. The Executive Board may modify, including waiving completely, the amount of the reinstatement fee and back dues.

ARTICLE IV – OFFICERS AND ELECTIONS

Section 1.

Officers: The following officers shall be elected in the odd-numbered years:
President; First Vice-President; Second Vice-President; Secretary; Treasurer; Vice-President for Political Action; Vice-President for Policy Enforcement; Vice-President for Communications; Vice-President Professional Issues; Vice-President Certificated Employees; Vice-President Leadership; Vice-President Membership; Vice-President for Paraprofessional Employees; Vice-President for Secretarial/Clerical Employees. There also shall be the office of Retiree Liaison, which shall be designated by the Retiree Chapter. The term of office shall be three years. Candidates for any office shall run for only one office in any election.

Section 2.

Eligibility: Membership in good standing for at least two years measured from the date of nomination is required to hold office in this Local except for new members from new bargaining units during the first two years after inclusion of an additional bargaining unit.

Section 3.

Nominations: Nominations for office shall be made at a General Membership meeting in March of the odd-numbered year. Notification of the nomination process shall be provided to each member at least fifteen (15) days prior to the general membership meeting when nominations will be in order. Notice of the right to make nominations and the election may be combined in one notice. Nominations shall be made from the floor. Nominees must have given their consent.

Section 4.

Elections:

a) Date of Elections: Election of officers shall be conducted not more than 60 days after the time of nominations. Election shall be conducted by secret ballot vote of members in good standing.

b) Declaration of Winners: The candidates receiving a plurality of at least forty percent (40%) of the votes cast shall be declared elected. If the plurality of forty (40%) is not obtained, a run-off election of the two candidates receiving the most votes shall be held within fifteen days according to the above procedure for notice and scheduling.
c) Constituency Voting: Election of officers identified by a specific constituency will be by those members from that constituency.

d) Eligible Voters: Candidates for office shall be permitted to review the list of eligible voters at the Local Office within 30 days in advance of the election date.

e) Observers: Candidates shall be permitted to have observers present during the counting of ballots in any election. The number of observers permitted by each candidate shall be uniform and determined by the Elections Committee.

Section 5.

Election Records: The ballots and all other records pertaining to the election shall be kept by the Secretary for a period not less than one year.

Section 6.

Taking Office: Officers shall take office on July 1, following their election.

Section 7.
