

Nearly 90% of Missouri's K-12 students attend neighborhood public schools. Right now, some politicians in the Missouri Legislature are siding with special interests to hurt our kids by taking funds meant for textbooks, microscopes, and computers into for profit charter schools and vouchers..

We are parents, grandparents, teachers, and regular people who love our neighborhood/local public schools. We have great local schools and we want to keep it that way for all our kids. Our neighborhood schools are under attack because some see it as a way of lining their own pockets at the expense of our kids' education. We want you to have all the facts about how Charter Schools with little oversight or accountability often underperform their local schools. How some politicians have chosen their donors over doing what is right. And, how our neighborhood schools continue to inspire students and prepare them for a bright future.

Share Text 1: So true! I know so many parents who bought into the charter school lie, only to have the school fail their kids. Most of them returned to public schools and were better off.

Share Text 2: Numbers don't lie. Public schools outperform charters BY FAR.
